

HR POLICIES

1. Leave Policy – Annual Leave

Employees are entitled to 18 paid annual leave days per calendar year. Leave requests must be submitted through the HRMS portal at least 3 working days in advance and require reporting manager approval. Unused annual leave up to 5 days may be carried forward to the next year, while the remaining balance lapses unless approved by HR.

2. Leave Policy – Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to 12 paid sick leave days annually. For absences longer than 2 consecutive days, a medical certificate must be submitted to HR within 48 hours of returning to work. Repeated unplanned leave without proper documentation may lead to attendance review.

3. Work From Home Policy – Eligibility

Employees who have completed 6 months of service are eligible to work from home up to 2 days per week with manager approval. Employees must ensure stable internet connectivity, availability during core business hours, and participation in all scheduled meetings.

4. Attendance Policy – Working Hours

Standard working hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday to Friday. Employees must complete 8 working hours excluding lunch break. Biometric attendance or approved login tracking is mandatory for payroll and compliance purposes.

5. Attendance Policy – Late Arrival

More than 3 late arrivals in a month may result in a warning from HR and can impact performance reviews. Consistent late reporting without valid justification may lead to salary deduction or disciplinary action based on company rules.

6. Probation Policy – Duration

New employees serve a probation period of 6 months. Confirmation depends on performance review by the reporting manager and HR approval. During probation, either party may terminate employment with a shorter notice period of 15 days.

7. Performance Review Policy – Appraisal Cycle

Performance appraisals are conducted annually in March based on goal achievement, manager feedback, and company performance. Mid-year reviews may also be conducted for development planning and performance improvement discussions.

8. Promotion Policy – Eligibility

Employees become eligible for promotion after completing at least 18 months in their current role, subject to performance and business requirements. Promotions are based on leadership capability, role readiness, and organizational needs rather than tenure alone.

9. Resignation Policy – Notice Period

Employees must serve a 60-day notice period after resignation unless otherwise approved by management. Buyout options may be considered only with business approval and full knowledge transfer completion.

10. Exit Policy – Clearance

Employees must complete asset return, knowledge transfer, and finance clearance before final settlement is processed. Failure to return company property may delay relieving letters and final salary settlement.

11. Maternity Leave Policy – Leave Duration

Female employees are entitled to 26 weeks of paid maternity leave as per company policy and applicable labor laws. Employees should inform HR and managers at least 8 weeks before expected leave commencement for planning and handover.

12. Paternity Leave Policy – Leave Duration

Male employees are entitled to 5 working days of paid paternity leave within 30 days of childbirth. Leave requests should be submitted in advance wherever possible for proper work allocation.
